Homestuck Holi-Zine

A Holiday Themed Collection

Thank you for checking out the collected works in our zine! Creators were encouraged to produce pieces individually or collaboratively that depicted beloved Homestuck characters experiencing the holiday season in whatever way they seen fit. Any and all holiday celebrations were welcomed, as many people celebrate the season differently.

This collection was put together by 26 artists, and is comprised of 31 creative pages. We encourage you to take your time going through this zine, as well as to check out each creator involved. Everyone worked very hard over the past 2 months to put these wonderful works together.

Additionally, while the zine is free for download, we would like to encourage you to help others best you can this season. Should you be able, look towards any local organizations who could use your support, financial or otherwise.

Happy Holidays!
